A Setback to Justice

THE merciless knife of the "firing squad" of the Provincial Government has fallen again, and with it fall another head has been decapitated and another vacancy opened in the group of men who receive government salaries from the taxpayers of Alberta. A. H. Gibson, K.C., former police magistrate of Edmonton, has been "fired" by the Aberhart Government by virtue of an order-in-council passed by the cabinet recently. No valid reason for his dismissal was given, although hints as to the "honesty" and "integrity" of the office of police magistrate demands were made by Premier Aberhart in a statement which he issued to the Edmonton Journal in response to the former magistrate's explanation to that same daily paper.

The statement from the Premier, however, contained no reason for the abrupt dismissal. It was primarily abusive in character and neither denied nor confirmed the accusations made by the respected former police magistrate. It ridiculed the "fired" individual's report and insulted the Edmonton Journal for printing it.

But the substance of the firing seems to be an attempt to place the law courts of this province under political control. A magistrate must think twice before deciding a person guilty because of the prisoner's possible political creed. That is nothing but a black eye for the law of the province. For years, Premier Aberhart has been demanding fair play in his so-called fight for a theoretical belief, but the manner in which he has ruthlessly fired magistrates and treated servants is anything but fair play—it is rank injustice.

Pegged Prices and Tariffs

PREMIER MITCHELL HEPBURN, that firebrand of the Liberal party, continues his attacks on the Federal Government for its action in pegging the price of Western Canadian wheat. He asks, in effect, "Why should Eastern Canada be forced to pay its share in order to make up a deficit which this pegged price will undoubtedly show?" Western Canadians may well counter this question with another: "Why should Western Canada pay more for its manufactured goods just because Eastern Canada demands protection in the form of high tariffs and subsidies?"

Both these questions originate from a too narrow view point of Canada's economic problems. Eastern Canada has always received, just as it is receiving today, protective tariffs and government subsidies to keep their manufacturing centers going; Western Canada, outside of the pegged price of wheat, has received little or no consideration in the past. The Canadian wheat Board, by pegging the price of wheat, has given the primary producers of the West a helping hand; a hand which they well deserve.

Citizens of Western Canada idly wonder what Premier Mitchell Hepburn would have to say if the high tariffs on automobiles, tobacco and machinery were lifted by the Federal Government.

August in England

(From the Christian Science Monitor)

BEFORE the British rearmament program got under way, ominous reports came out of England that the people had become crisis-conscious, like the French. Now that is a thing of the past. British phlegm has reasserted itself, that phlegm which, according to an envious Frenchman, helps the British to overcome crises because they don't know there has been a crisis till it is all over.

Take, for example, these particular days of August, when peace is supposedly hanging by a thread. Walter Lippmann in his dispatches from Europe gives the impression that a sneeze at the wrong time might upset the apparent irretrievability of the situation. On the greenward the people are playing and watching that game so incomprehensible to non-Britons.

It so happens that the only Armageddon to absorb England is the cricket test between England and Australia. The games have already been decided in favor of Australia, but the fifth match has held popular interest just as if the rubber were still at stake. For the game has yielded several records, including one by a 22-year-old Yorkshireman, who has compiled the highest score of all time. From John O'Grady to Lord's End, he has been, and the war scars have been banished to the inside pages.

August may be a dangerous month, but not to the British. To them it is a month dedicated to holiday-making and le sport. This is a distinct service to statesmanship. Wise decisions can be attained only in an atmosphere of public calm.

Through the Eyes of a Country Woman

By BRIDGET

Amongst my Grandmother's most treasured possessions was some Devonshire pottery with quotations written on them. The sayings were full of wit and wisdom, and many still linger in my memory. One came to my mind, when looking at the beautiful pictures of our Queen taken during their Majesty's recent visit to Paris. The quotation, which I believe comes from Robert Burns, ran like this, "O wad some power the gift gie us, to see ourselves as others see us." I am sure that is spelled and may be even quoted wrongly, but unfortunately, I could never learn the Scottish language. Seriously, though, I do think our young Queen has this gift, perhaps her being Scotch may account for this. The French words are notorious amongst them, they know how to wear their clothes, even the beggars wear their rags with distinction. The cream of French society assembled to greet our Queen, and the report reads, "they were surprised." But I don't think Britishers were a bit surprised, the Queen always seems to do the right thing, at the right time, in the right way.

Queen Elizabeth has not the fashionable slim figure, she is only of average height, her hair is not cut, nor piled up on her head like a bunch of wieners, her eye-brows are not plucked nor her cheeks rouged, yet, in this smart group the Queen stood out, by reason of her elegance, quiet dignity and "right" behavior. Rather an achievement, one must admit. Each picture shows her the embodiment of daintiness and charm. Through the death of her Mother her choice of colors was severely limited, yet she rung the changes in some subtle manner that made each white ensemble perfect, and different.

How would you dress if you were a Queen? If you were too smart you would be as open to criticism as if you were too dowdy. Her dresses were a little longer than most of the ladies surrounding her, yet perhaps it was this small item that lent her a little height, and emphasized her small, dainty feet, always beautifully shod. Her hats, though large, were such that the crowd could always view comfort see her face, as after all she knew she was on show!

I do believe that the Queen's gift in dressing is that she can see herself as others see her, and want to see her. Not a clothes horse on which to hang fashion's latest extravaganza. She dresses herself in what suits her, and is suitable to her, and her situation, and the occasion, and the contention will be worn. The Queen adds to this suitability, which would be dowdy if untouched, her artistic sense, and any new fashion which can be successfully introduced.

When one reads of Lady Mendy, who is nearly eighty, arriving to meet the Queen in the latest Paris model topped with a head of hair-dyed level-headedness of our beloved young Scottish Queen. She celebrated her thirty-eight birthday in August, and she does not try to hide one year by girlish falls, but does, in fact, look younger by her very scorning of artificial aids.

Her birthday, which was paid for in a daily paper headed "The Queen, God Bless Her," written by that young author, Beverly Nichols, whom I have a penchant for quoting. It was so simple, sincere and young that it sounded like one contemporary speaking of another. I must quote a little, "... when we suddenly realized that she was Queen, we were a bewildered nation, split by faction, distracted by rumour. We should not have been human if our eyes had not turned over and over again to the retreating figure of the Duke of Windsor. He had to use the metaphor of the theatre, all the sympathy, all the glamour, all the best lines, and all the best situation. All that is over now, and we have woken up to the fact that in our King and Queen we have gained more glamour than we have lost. It is not a true journalistic phrase to say that we love her."

All of us must look back with a feeling of gratitude to the able way she took the great burden of Queenship on her shoulders, and carried on in a difficult post which was certainly not of her seeking.

When her Mother, who was helpmate as well, died, her respite from public duties was curtailed to the very minimum, yet her smile was just as brilliant, her attention to detail unflinching.

I believe only a Scotchwoman could have made such success of the trying job of being a Queen at such an awkward time!

The innovations at the Palace have reversed many traditions, for instance, an ordinary dance orchestra was hired for a state ball instead of the usual more sedate Guards' band providing the music. This must have made some of the die-hard gasp, but the Queen has such a pretty dignity of her own, that I am sure she has lost none of its staleness.

Her obvious affection for Queen Mary, her love of her family endear her to all; she is the shining example to all Britishers of loving Mother and loyal Wife. An American paper printed an article this Spring trying to prove that there was rivalry between the Queen and the Duchess of Kent for the leadership of fashion. Of any more ridiculous it is hard to think! The Queen knows no set fashion, yet she guides the trend thereof. Anything she admires or buys, at once has a vogue. The two little Princesses' clothes are copied by the whole world. She is as modern as morning's newspaper, yet she comes sense tempered her judgment. She is one of the greatest possessions this great empire has, so, let us, with Beverly Nichols, toast "The Queen—God Bless Her!"

QUITE SAFE

The manager of a cinema interviewed an applicant for the position of attendant. After asking the man several questions as to his suitability for the job, he finally asked him: "What would you do in case of fire?" "Oh," said the man, "don't worry about me. I'd soon get out."

The World of Wheat

By MAJOR H. L. STRANGE

Alberta farmers in certain large areas need badly "a new variety of wheat that will be as early as Garnet, and that will possess the high qualities of Marquis."

The University of Alberta, the Dominion Experimental Farms at Lacombe, Lethbridge and Beaverlodge, and the Provincial Schools of Agriculture at Olds and Vermilion are working steadily on this problem, but they now need the farmers' help, for the much desired new variety will be produced quicker if the plant breeders in this institutions can find out what farmers think of the varieties they are now using.

The University of Alberta recently published bulletin No. 30, which deals with cereal crops. I recommend every farmer to write for a free copy of this excellent bulletin and then to fill in and mail the questionnaire on wheat that will be found therein.

Those who have received the bulletin, but who have not yet filled in the questionnaire, should, I courteously suggest, do so, for the information that the farmers can supply. I am assured by Dr. Neaby of the University of Alberta, will most definitely help our plant breeders to produce the high quality earlier variety of wheat now so badly needed.

The following factors have tended to raise prices:—Russia withdraws wheat offers; European political news is still unfavorable; Germany makes substantial purchases of Argentine wheat; Canadian and Rumanian wheat; Italian wheat import requirements believed large and corn meager; United Kingdom taking good quantities of Australian wheat; Adverse weather delays Russian harvest.

Following factors have tended to lower prices:—New Argentine wheat offerings below present prices; Switzerland increases wheat import duty; Australian wheat crop improves; High Balkan minimum wheat price restrict sales countries with available currencies; Argentine wheat reserves may be larger than believed; Rumanian wheat crop probably 24 million above 1937.

Hard Surfacing Alberta System

Some 200 miles of Alberta highways have been given bituminous surfacing this season, according to an official report which the Alberta Motor Association has received from the Provincial Public Works Department.

Started earlier in the year, many of these bituminous surfacing projects have been completed, leaving only a few to be finished in the next few weeks.

The "seal coat," which is second-course surfacing, has been laid on an extensive part of the main highway system this year. Stretches between Edmonton and Millet, Calgary to Banff and Calgary to Okotoks have been included in the "seal coat" program.

The Public Works Department also has been engaged with 127 miles of gravel surfacing and 66 miles of grading, all forming part of the current season's program. A great deal of work at the Given fair weather-conditions, the program undertaken last spring and summer will be completed shortly, according to officials of the Public Works Department.

Thus the provincial highway system is being improved to make Alberta all the more attractive to the motor tourist.

RAW FURS VALUE

The value of Canada's production of raw furs in the season 1936-37 (12 months ended June 30, 1937) is placed at $16,666,375, compared with $15,464,883 in the preceding season. These totals comprise the value of pelts of fur bearing animals taken by trappers and pelts sold from fur farms, the value of the latter representing approximately forty per cent of the whole. The total for the 1936-37 season is the highest recorded since the 1928-1929 season.

The University of Alberta recently published bulletin No. 30, which deals with cereal crops. I recommend every farmer to write for a free copy of this excellent bulletin and then to fill in and mail the questionnaire on wheat that will be found therein.

Those who have received the bulletin, but who have not yet filled in the questionnaire, should, I courteously suggest, do so, for the information that the farmers can supply. WEDDINGS

McFADDEN-SAGE

Marriage of Helen May, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Sage of Lacombe, to Mr. Arthur Donald McFadden, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McFadden of Springdale, took place at St. Andrew's United Church, Lacombe, on Thursday, Sept. 1, at 4:30 p.m.

The ceremony was performed before a beautiful bridal arch of ferns and gladioli, carried out in pastel shades, and centered with a white wedding bell. Clusters of sweet peas in pastel shades marked the guest pews.

Rev. A. L. Carr read the marriage lines. Mrs. Harold Woody played Mendelssohn's Wedding March, and while the register was being signed Mr. Harold Woody sang "O Promise Me."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely gown of chiffon over satin, fashioned on princess lines, with a square neck line and a long, very full skirt. Her veil embraced silk and lace, hung from a coronet of orange blossoms and pearls. She wore white sandals and carried a colonial bouquet of sweetheart roses and lilacs of the valley.

Miss C. Elizabeth Sage, elder sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and her younger sister, Miss Nina F. Sage, was the bridesmaid. Their frocks of Organdy over satin were fashioned like the bride's, on long, graceful lines, with tiny puffed sleeves, the bridesmaid's gown being pretty pale blue and the maid of honor's white. They wore chapel veils of net caught with clusters of apple blossoms and carried colonial bouquets of gladioli and sweet peas.

Mr. McFadden was attended by his brother, Mr. Allan Robert McFadden, and the ushers were Mr. Bruce Sage, brother of the bride, and Mr. Victor Jones and Mr. Harry Leggett.

Reception Held
Following the ceremony a reception to sixty guests took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Sage, mother of the bride, and the groom's mother, Mrs. McFadden, receiving with the wedding party. For the occasion Mrs. Sage chose a figured navy blue sheer with picture hat and accessories in navy tones. Her corage was red roses. Mrs. McFadden was smartly gowned in navy blue crepe with matching accessories and wore a corsage of red roses.

In rooms fragrant and beautiful with late summer flowers, a buffet lunch was served, the bride's table centered with a three-tier wedding cake banked in mauve tulle and flanked with vases of mauve sweet peas. Presiding at the tea tables were Mrs. Watt Keith of Lacombe and Mrs. R. V. McCullough of Taber, sister of the groom. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Arnold Bruns and Mrs. Leslie Mathieson.

Later the bridal couple left for a honeymoon trip, motoring to Waterton Lakes and to Swift Current, Sask. The bride's traveling costume consisted of a green knitted wool suit and a Lepais Delaine wool cloth coat of moss green, with con collar, and matching accessories. On their return they will reside in Lacombe.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. A. R. McFadden, Springdale; Mr. and Mrs. H. McFadden, Springdale; Mr. and Mrs. R. V. McCullough, Taber, and Mr. W. Fraser of Edmonton. Previous to her marriage Mrs.

MINTON-RIS

A quiet wedding of local interest was celebrated in Edmonton last Saturday by Rev. Capt. Reynolds at the Holy Trinity Church, when Miss Martha Riis, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Riis of Blackfalds, became the bride of Mr. Frank Minton of Edmonton and formerly of Winnipeg. Mr. and Mrs. Minton are spending part of their honeymoon at the home of the bride's parents and will make their home later in Edmonton. They motored down to Blackfalds on Sunday morning.

McFadden had been for three years teaching school in the Spring Valley district. Mr. McFadden is a graduate of the University of Alberta, having obtained his B.Sc. degree in Agriculture in 1937. At present Mr. McFadden is with the staff of the Dominion Experimental Station at Lacombe.

W.I. Opens Fall Season

The report of the Federal W.I. read by Mrs. W. Newton, was a feature of the opening fall meeting of the Lacombe branch of the Women's Institute, at the home of Mrs. R. Hoppus on Saturday, Sept. 3. Impromptu one-minute speeches by several members was also a part of the program and Mrs. Hoppus played several delightful piano selections.

Mrs. Hoppus and Mrs. Jenkins were appointed to the Sick Committee for the ensuing month. The October meeting will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. J. Ford, on the first Saturday, when a ten-cent cooking exchange will be used to augment the funds.

Blackfalds

(From Our Own Correspondent)

BLACKFALDS. — John Sulik was recently a visitor in Calgary. Mrs. Will Heenan, who recently paid a visit to Rochester for the benefit of her health, is now home again, somewhat better, although not completely cured.

Miss Ethel Lawson of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, Edmonton, spent the long week-end locally with her sisters.

Miss W. E. C. Smith, who taught here for the past two years, visited Miss Hortense Capron last Tuesday in between trains. She is now located at Islay.

School re-opened last Thursday with an enrolment of over seventy pupils. More pupils are expected in the upper room later. The school has the same staff as last year, except that Mr. Sauffer of Didsbury replaces Miss Smith.

The Rev. Mr. Carr resumed services last Sunday at the United Church, with a small congregation in attendance. The question of a Sunday School was brought up, and it seems that if there is sufficient interest, something may be done about this later. Meanwhile, Sunday School is to be started at Blindman School starting next Sunday. Services will be continued at the local United church at 3 p.m. next Sunday and every Sunday thereafter. Rev. Mr. Herbert is also having an additional service in the English church; it will be held at 3 p.m. on the second and 11 a.m. on the fourth Sundays in the month until further notice.

On Sunday evening, Sept. 4, a farewell party was held for Philip Patterson. A large group of his classmates and friends from the Canadian Junior College spent a very enjoyable evening. Francis Patterson's birthday was also commemorated with a large cake.

Frank Warren has been under the doctor's care lately, but it seems difficult to diagnose his trouble. We hope to report his complete recovery in the near future.

Miss Elsie Walker is resting at home after spending a few days in the Red Deer Hospital. Called to Vancouver.

Rev. William Reed has accepted a call to a Vancouver church and is expected to move there from Spokane this week.

Kenneth Dane has returned to his school in Cadomin, but Mrs. Dane expects to remain here another two weeks or so. Meanwhile their son Allen is attending the local school.

Other local teachers who have returned to their charges are Miss Mabel Martin to Lakeside, John Farewell to Coronation, Gordon Matthias to Chipman and Miss Henrietta Miller to the Peace River. Miss Grace Goughlight is back at Aspelund, Miss Nettie Rod at Blindman and Miss Sheila Hanna at Durham.

Gordon Peterson was recently operated upon at the Red Deer hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Hart, who have been residents in the village for some years past, are expected to make their home in Calgary in the near future. Mr. Hart was in the village over the week-end and Mrs. Hart expects to move this week-end. Their son-in-law, E. Olive of Ponoka, was in the village, visiting them on Labor Day; Mrs. Olive was also down for the week-end.

Mrs. Walker's sister, Mrs. Martin, and family, of Calgary, were up visiting her over the week-end.

As a result of the recent warm spell, most of the cutting hereabouts has been completed, and threshing is expected to begin this week.

Philip Patterson left Tuesday evening for Nashville, Tenn., where he plans to continue his education.

Clive

(From Our Own Correspondent)

CLIVE.—School opened again for another term, with G. G. Vanderyl taking High School, Miss Hushion of Canmore Junior High, V. Winters the Intermediate and Miss Helen Price the Junior room.

Clive and district School Fair will be held at Clive in the Community Hall Saturday, Sept. 10. R. N. Longstreet was taken seriously ill from a stroke on Saturday morning and was rushed to the Lacombe and District Community Hospital. Latest reports say he is doing as well as can be expected.

Leaves for Oklahoma

Mrs. Lulu Vanderyl left Wednesday, Sept. 7, for Woodward, Okla., where she will spend the winter with her sister.

Mrs. Lee Forcht and Little Garth Martin are patients at the Lacombe Community Hospital.

Rev. G. A. Ketylia underwent a slight operation in the University Hospital, Edmonton, last week.

Threshing is becoming general in this district, and the farmers report a good yield.

Not to be outdone by Blackfalds, along comes Mrs. Johnston McWilliam, who has a garden second to none in this district, with a vegetable marrow grown this year weighing 14 pounds and measuring 28 inches long and 24 inches thick. Mrs. McWilliam is also picking her second crop of raspberries from her garden, and peas are well on the way for a second crop, some being well in pod, the rest being white with blooms.

Milton

(From Our Own Correspondent)

MILTON. — With the nice weather, binders are in full swing. Some are threshing wheat and early crops.

Mr. and Mrs. Talbot are enjoying a visit from Mr. Talbot's of Calgary.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

At all Christian Science churches next Sunday, the subject of the Lesson-Sermon will be "Substance." One of the Scriptural quotations in the Lesson-Sermon is John 14:12, "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do, shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father."

One of the correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, is: "Do you say the time has not yet come in which to recognize Soul as substantial and able to control the body? Remember Jesus, who nearly nineteen centuries ago demonstrated the power of Spirit and said, 'He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also,' and who also said, 'But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth' (p. 92).

Trotsky Writing Book On Stalin

MEXICO, D.F.—Associates of Leon Trotsky said that he is now writing a biography of Joseph Stalin, who exiled him from Soviet Russia 10 years ago.

Mr. Trotsky, former Russian War Commissar, expects to complete the book in four months. He also is writing a biography of Lenin, "Father of the Russian Revolution."

HOME TALENT

The hill-billy was witnessing his first stage show on his first visit to the big city. In an interval between the acts he turned to the metropolitan who had the seat next to him.

"Where do all of those actors come from?" he inquired. "Were they brought on especially for this show, or do they live here?"

"I believe most of them live here in town," said the big city fellow.

"Well, they do right well for home talent," said the hill-billy.

McLaurin Beach

(From Our Own Correspondent)

McLAURIN BEACH.—Mrs. W. J. C. Madden, Miss Pearl Madden, Mrs. O. A. Park and Miss Clarise Park, who were visiting Rev. George E. Williams at McLaurin Beach, returned to Calgary on Thursday. Miss Madden has recently returned from India, where she did missionary work under Stanley Jones and later worked with Gandhi.

Miss Madden says Gandhi is misunderstood in Canada. He wanted to join the church while in South Africa, she said, but was refused on account of his color.

Fascists Indicate Ousting of Jews From Newspapers

ROME—Informed Fascist quarters here recently said that a campaign has begun to oust the Jews and Jewish interests from Italian journalism.

Two big newspapers possessing Jewish capital were said to have changed hands within the past few days. It was reported that the Jewish editor of Il Corriere Adriatico had been replaced.

Fascists said that a complete "purge" of newspapers probably would follow as part of the party's new race policy, one slogan of which is "No Jews as public servants and one Jew per thousand Italian in national life."

The newspapers reported to have changed hands were Il Giornale d'Italia, of which Virginio Gayda, an authoritative Fascist spokesman, is editor, and Il Piccolo, published in Trieste.

New Deal or Social Credit

Substitute Social Credit for the New Deal and it sounds closely akin to Alberta.

NEW DEAL

My father, poor misguided gent Wasted his life; a life misspent By working hard and working late

To gather pieces of the eight. Poor Dad! He'd fuss and fret and toil,

And burn the blooming midnight oil. For nothing but a little cash

To buy the daily bread and hash. Poor Dad! He was so mild and meek,

He'd work six days in every week. And fourteen hours in every day

To try and keep the wolf away. Now father, meaning well, but dumb,

Amassed a rather tidy sum With which he planned to buy some beers,

Then came the NEW DEAL; simple Dad,

Who worked so hard for all he had, Awoke one morn to find that he Was now a public enemy. A louse, a Scrooge, a national cyst,

An Economic Royalist! So Dad, industrious but dumb,

Is now the source from which will come

The coin to buy the gasoline. For some poor underdog's machine

To bring the More Abundant Life To every loafer and his wife.

For radios to ease the bells Of all the chronic ne'er-do-wells;

For booze, so labor's Little Nell Can tell the boss to go to Hell.

Poor Dad, a faithful, trustful coon,

Was born just 30 years to soon. L'enlovi.

A mural links along the hall In all this fancy fol-de-rol,

And it is this; that any cheat Who says you ought to work and eat,

Is simply nuts, out of his head; Sit on your tail, or stay in bed,

The Government will see, by gad, That you get yours from chumps like Dad.

Humorist: "Wheat provides us with one of the world's most interesting stories, a story that is not yet concluded," states a well-known writer. A thrilling cereal.

Mirror

(From Our Own Correspondent)
MIRROR.—A quiet wedding took place in the United Church on Monday, Sept. 5, between Miss Velma De Vore of Mirror and Mr. Robert Olding of Alia. They will reside in Alia, where the groom is employed by the Central Alberta Dairy Pool.

Margaret Reid returned from the Lacombe Hospital Thursday, where she underwent an operation. Threshing operations are well underway in this district, where a heavy yield and a good quality is expected. Garden vegetables are luxuriant in growth. Among the outstanding ones are a pumpkin grown by N. Saries weighing 50 pounds, 5 feet in circumference, and a carrot weighing about two pounds, grown by G. W. Reid.

New Teachers
Miss A. Morgan of Bashaw and Will McDonald of Hespero have assumed their new duties on the Mirror teaching staff. The remainder of the staff is the same as last year. Miss Maile Wheatley of Edmonton, one of our former teachers, spent a few days in town visiting friends. She has accepted a position on the Wainwright teaching staff.

Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Sneathers spent the week-end at Marwayne. Miss Nanette Jacques is visiting her cousin and attending school.

Fairview

(From Our Own Correspondent)
FAIRVIEW.—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Butcher, accompanied by their grandsons, Jack and Tommy Butcher, were week-end visitors at Rocky Mountain House, where they visited their daughter, Mrs. Calkins. They also called on Mrs. McOuchieon, formerly of this district.

The Fairview Ladies' Aid held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Pawcett. A good attendance was reported. They decided to hold their annual chicken supper on October 28 and less some other special event falls on that date.

Miss Helen Magee returned to this district to resume her duties at the local school, Arbrodale. John Berg, who has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Pawcett, has accepted the position as teacher of Sleepy Valley school, north east of Rocky Mountain House. Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Clifton of Vegreville and Mrs. Kahn of New York were visitors at the King home over the week-end.

Mrs. G. Brooks of Lacombe spent a few days last week at Mr. and Mrs. Pawcett's. Her children, Jackie and Joan, accompanied her. Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Milne of Edmonton were down over the week-end and visited at W. Och's farm and A. May's farm at Chigwell. Rev. J. A. Perrie returned from his vacation last week and church was held again on Sunday.

TURNABOUT
The travelling salesman became more and more puzzled as to how the store kept alive. Finally he asked: "How in the world do you make a go of things at all?" Indicating the clerk, who was at the far end of the counter, the storekeeper replied: "You see that fellow there? Well, he works for me, and I can't pay him. In two years he gets the store. Then I work for him till I get it back."

TURNER VALLEY PRORATION
LESS DRASTIC THAN TEXAS
An owner of an oil property in Texas capable of producing 6,000 barrels a day, would be allowed to produce only 20 barrels a day. An owner of a well of the same size in Turner Valley would be allowed to produce more than 100 times as much.

This example shows how drastic are the proration regulations. Compared with Texas, the Turner Valley producer is in a fortunate position. If it was co-operation among producers, pipe lines, railways and refiners which brought about this result. Without it there would have been confusion and chaos, disastrous to producers and consumers.

In Western Canada, prices have been reduced to such an extent that if only the same quantities of products are consumed this year on the prairies as were consumed last year, farmers will save at least $5,000,000 on the purchase of their gasoline and tractor fuels.

Both World Fairs Provide Sites For Boy Scout Camps

NEW YORK.—Both the New York World's Fair 1939 and the Golden Gate International Exposition in San Francisco are to have Boy Scout camps functioning within their grounds when they are opened next year on opposite sides of the continent, according to Dr. James E. West, Chief Scout Executive.

Plans for the Scout settlement in the New York World's Fair provide for a village in which 150 boys will dwell. The 29th annual meeting of the National Council of the Boy Scout Organization in America will be held here during May, 1939, permitting delegates from throughout the United States to visit the Exposition.

Using special equipment, engineers from the Radio Corporation of America heated with radio waves the steel framework for the RCA pavilion. While the process was described as impractical under present conditions, hope was voiced it might signal new openings for radio in the future.

"What model is your car?"
"It isn't a model. It's a horrible example."

Sunny Crest Specs

By SPY
SUNNY CREST.—Miss Connie Carter paid a visit last week to Mr. and Mrs. McNeill's on her way to take up her teaching duties at Bentley School. Our new teacher, Leo Hutton, will board with Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Barr.

Threshing is in full swing this week, although there is quite a bit to cut yet.

It pays to advertise in the Lacombe Globe. H. Woods' advertisement appeared in last Thursday's Globe. Saturday Mr. Hunt told him he had seen his last horses south of the Gulf Lake Trail. On following this lead on Sunday the horses were located over the Blindman River, nine miles west of Blackfalds.

Miss Marion Gee has gone to Lacombe to take her Grade 10 Studies this year. Frankie Caine for the B.C.A. pavilion. While the process was described as impractical under present conditions, hope was voiced it might signal new openings for radio in the future.
